

A unique one-off event
White Rock Hotel, Hastings
Wednesday 2nd September 2009, 6pm

Come and hear world renowned environmentalist, David Eisenberg speak on

Sustainability, Appropriate Technology and the Urban Environment

David Eisenberg

www.dcat.net

David Eisenberg co-founded and leads the non-profit Development Center for Appropriate Technology (DCAT) in Tucson, Arizona. He has presented workshops, seminars, keynote addresses and lectures at conferences and universities around the world.

Recently he has given presentations in Amman Jordan, Riyadh, Dammam and Jeddah Saudi Arabia, and Tel Aviv, Israel, at the New Zealand Institute of Architects in Auckland, the Warkworth, NZ Transition Towns Group, and in Australia at the University of Ballarat, and the Sustainable Building 08 (SB08) in Melbourne.

And now – in Hastings for one night only.

To reserve a place contact Chantal Lass at HBC 01424 451483 or Carol Biggs at Hastings Trust 01424 452526 carol@hastingstrust.co.uk

Sponsored by Hastings Borough Council in partnership with Hastings Trust

This is an Energise Hastings Initiative